

AFGE

United We Stand, Together We Rise

AFGE understands the frustration our members are facing.
We are in this fight together!

Like and follow us on Facebook:
<https://www.facebook.com/afgeunion>
<https://www.facebook.com/AFGECouncil220>

- ✓ Visit our council page regularly for updates.
- ✓ Ensure your contact information with AFGE is current.
- ✓ Attend and participate in local union meetings.
- ✓ Ensure your coworkers are members and encourage them to get in the fight and join, if they aren't.
- ✓ Engage in conversations and present your thoughts to your local representative.
- ✓ Participate in union surveys, your voice is important.
- ✓ Stand together with your coworkers and your union; we are all in this struggle together.
- ✓ Utilize EAP if you feel your mental health is being impacted by Agency changes.
- ✓ Contact your local legislative lawmakers to voice your concerns (Not on duty time or from agency equipment)

AFGE C220

Ensure your coworkers are also members, if not encourage them to join.

EAP

Employee Assistance Program (EAP) resources and services are available to all employees. In the face of unprecedented challenges, EAP is a confidential service offering resources for your well-being at home and at work
1-877-549-9528 24-hours per day, 7 days a week.

AFGE E-Dues

Government employees can easily sign up to become a member of AFGE online using the AFGE E-Dues system.